Who giveth food to all flesh, for his mercy endureth forever. O give thanks unto the God of heaven, for his mercy endureth forever. - Psalm cxxxvi., vv. 1, 25, 26. In the earlier days of a New England Thanksgiving, the gratitude for the food which the earth and the forest have produced came foremost in all congratulations. If the wheat were blasted, if a hard frost killed the oysters for a generation, all men knew the calamity, deplored it as a judgment, and sought forgiveness. But if the harvest prospered, if the orchards groaned with fruit and the intervals with corn, if the fishermen returned early and full, all men knew that as well, and praised the God of fruit-tree, of seed-time, of harvest, and of the seas. It is one of the notable results of a more complex social order, that now, when the national...
