William Meade: Assistant Bishop of Virginia, to the Ministers, Members, and Friends, of the Protestant Episcopal Church in the Diocese of Virginia, on the Duty of Affording Religious Instruction to Thoses in Bondage Dear Brethren and Friends: When at the late Convention of our Church in the city of Richmond, I was led to discourse on the great efficacy of God s word as preached by his ministers, and a desire was manifested, that the remarks then made should be published and more generally diffused, it will be remembered, by many of you, that I discouraged the proposal; and I did it, as was then stated, from a conviction that there was nothing in the general tanor of the discourse, either new or striking, to render it worthy of publication. There was, however, a subsequent resolution and request of the Convention, which I dared not then discourage, and must not now neglect. I am thereby called upon to address a Pastoral Letter to the Churches, on one important and...
