Not illustrated. 1919 Excerpt: .funds will bring as I am writing this while most of our readers are just receiving the February Magazine, but I must tell you of three donations brought to my attention so far. A gentleman came up to me the other day and pulling some bills out of his pocket said, Mr. Woodruff, I am not a professing Christian, but I was reading that Publisher s Stuff with my wife last night, and she believes in what you were writing about and asked me to give you this $6.00 for the missionary funds. Yesterday morning a knock came on my office door. My stenographer opened the door and there stood a deaconess beside her and she was holding a $6.00 bill in her hand saying, What would you do with $2.00? She has just paid for two subscriptions and wants to give the other $2.00 to some f und. I said Put it in the missionary subscription fund. She smiled and said All right. This afternoon as I returned from an errand I found a check for $10.60 on my desk for the missionary subscription fund. A lady who recently sold some land was dividing up her tithe, and after reading Publisher s Stuff decided to subscribe for seven poor pastors, and left word she might call again. Sorry I haven t room for some nice letters from missionaries, a president of the college, a couple of pastors, a college professor, a woman who received How...
