In addition, CMS determined that it would repay the premium surcharges for any additional TRICARE beneficiaries who qualified under Section 625 of MMA, but had not yet been identified as eligible. In total, SSA and CMS repaid or credited 18, 713 TRICARE beneficiaries for the premium surcharges they had paid for 2004 Part B coverage. Not All Aspects of Section 625 Implementation Are Known Despite the availability of much data, some details concerning the laws implementation are unknown. SSA officials noted that the agency's automated processing system did not track the number of TRICARE beneficiaries who changed the effective date of their Part B coverage, as a result of Section 625 of MMA. SSA also could not identify the number of appeals filed by TRICARE beneficiaries that were affected by Section 625. Although SSA tracked the number of TFL-related inquiries that its field offices had received since January 2004, the agency...
