I have given you every seed-bearing herb and every fruit-bearing tree, which is upon the surface of the earth for food; and to every beast of the earth, and to every bird of the air, and to every moving and animated thing upon the earth I have given every green herb for food. And as God said, it was, and is. And yet God has made the material bodies of this army of living creatures furnished to the waters, the air, and the surface of the earth, as He has made the material body of man, out of the...
