Excerpt: . . . as well as possible without our help. GETTING AFTER THE CAR LOTS. The receipt of a request is followed by inspection of the goods as soon as time permits. The inspector, if supplied with a fair description, is usually able to locate the car promptly through inquiry from the railroad officials at the freight yard. Having found the car he breaks the seal on the door, climbs inside, and digs out and inspects packages at top, bottom, center, and ends, if necessary. The amount of sampling varies with the conditions. For instance, the work is severe with a car of potatoes suspected of several defects, such as rot and poor grading, and which is put up by different shippers using the one car. Plainly the inspector must examine many samples to get a complete view of the condition of each lot in the car. Bag, barrel, or box samples are opened, contents taken out and weighed or counted, and the condition noted. The culls, rots, or lowgrade specimens are weighed, the per cent of each calculated, and the results transferred to the inspectors notebook. All notes must be set down before leaving the car, as often there are several cars for one receiver but from different shippers, and, without notes completed on the spot, confusion might occur in making out the certificates. After the inspection the actual filling out of the certificate is still to be done, with a copy for the shipper, no...
