A CHEERFUL LOOK AHEAD--2019 IF the immediate view of man and things is not sufficiently cheerful, if you see too many things in the making as yet unfinished, if you are conscious of too many failures among men and nations, I bid you look ahead. What will it be in 2019 This is not idle, fruitless imagining. Christ was one who continually looked forward. He looked forward to the end of the Jewish Dispensation which was to come in the year 70, on to the new days that were to dawn. He saw His principles carried to the four corners of the earth, in hundreds upon hundreds of years that were to come. The prophets have been mighty men because they have had visions of the life to come. Many changes will have come to our material life in a century. The cities will have a strange look to the men who remember the old. New York and Chicago will be huge cities, but with many open spaces. Health and comfort will have paid whatever prices were necessary. The line between the country and the city will have almost disappeared with improvements in transportation and increasing population. America will then have two hundred million. New York and Chicago will have at least fifteen million each. Cities and towns will have the same advantages of libraries, music and recreation. The only perceptible difference will be that the gardens will be larger in the country than in...
