Journey on the Hard Side of Miracles (Paperback)

By Dr Steven Stiles

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .God can do anything He wants, anywhere He wants, anytime He wants, and in any way He wants. Sometimes He lets us see. All of us have experienced coincidences first hand, and perhaps we've encountered the truly unexplainable. But have we seen a genuine miracle? What does the Bible tell us about such events? Journey offers a unique perspective on miracles that challenges the reader to decide for themselves what is real and what is not. This true, thought provoking record of the supernatural first escorts you back to the international Jesus Movement of the 1970s to ponder some of the astonishing ways God rocked the lives of a generation of young Christians. The story continues to unfold as you wander across America with a humble band of Jesus People. Roaming in old, unreliable buses, the gentle shepherding of an unseen traveler is no sooner revealed than the extraordinary journey only becomes more difficult. But the young riders do not turn back. Startling events lead to the discovery that miracles aren't always what they first...
