O, yes, father; and were not the tiny fountains like the praises of redeemed child en, little ones like Edward and I? The sira smiled, with tears in his eyes, saying, God bless you, my child; and may you indeed be allowed to join that song of joy. That evening, when the family assembled for worship, the sira repeated many passages from the Holy Scriptures, which spoke of the power of the great Creator, who alone was able to restrain these hidden fires, and to preserve his people in safety through the helplessness of sleep. They took leave of their friends on the morning of the fifth day, for the sira wished to be. at home early on Saturday afternoon....
