O. , Supt. of Docs. , Congressional Sales Office, 1999. LC Number: KF26. 5 . N37 1999 OCLC Number: ocm42895602 Subject: Drug control -- Southwestern States. Excerpt: . . . 12 rage, 5 automobiles, 1 van, 2 boats, approximately 100 weapons, 45, 000 in treasury bills, 40 acres of land, and had no debt. Given the current background investigation or reinvestigation financial reporting requirements for Border Patrol agents, this agent would not have had anything to report, since he was not required to report his assets, and he had no debts to report. Our review of Customs files for eight of the nine convicted Customs employees showed that the Customs inspectors and canine enforcement officers had completed financial disclosure statements that included their assets and liabilities as part of their employee background investigations and reinvestigations. However, based on our case file review, Customs does not fully use all of the financial information. For example, according to a Customs official, reported liabilities are to be compared with debts listed on a credit report to determine if all debts were reported. Thus, their current use of the reported financial information would not have helped to identify an employee who was living well beyond his means or whose debts were excessive. Another source of evaluative information for INS and Customs could be the expe-riences of other Federal agencies with integrity prevention and detection policies and procedures. For example, while INS and Customs procedures were similar to those used by other Federal law enforcement agencies, several differences exist. Ac-cording to agency officials, INS and Customs did not require advanced integrity training, polygraph...
