AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2004. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 223 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The story. The Nine Moons of Adjemir. Is a story of magic and fantasy and the way this manuscript came about is rather interesting. When the author, Tyler Dhensaw was still in Grade 9, his English class was asked to write an essay and the content of this essay was to be about magic and fantasy. After the assignment was handed in and towards the end of the day, his teacher called young Tyler to stay after class, for a few moments so she could comment on his work. The essay, which had been handed in by Tyler, was simply called. Darmonarrow. The essay Darmonarrow actually became the first seven chapters of the book which has been re-titled. The Nine Moons of Adjemir. Tyler s English teacher did not want to comment about this essay in front of the entire class but she was quite excited about Tyler s writing skills. Apparently she had saw or felt something about Tyler s writing style, at which time she asked him to do one more edit on his work. Darmonarrow. When he handed in the edited version of Darmonarrow Tyler s teacher became even more excited. In a complimentary fashion she asked him if was possible to use his essay Darmonarrow in her next semesters class. Tyler who had just recently turned 14 years of age at the time, with his chest pumped out, while beaming with pride, stated to his surprised parents that evening, what his English teacher had said. With a young persons bragging confidence, he stated he felt he was good enough to write a book. Of course his parents, without Tyler s observation just rolled their...
